BRINGING UP FATHER

ROURKES COMMIT A DOUBLE MURDER

Wallop Wichita Two Games, Winning One After They Were Eight Runs Behind.

FORSYTHE HITS HOME RUN

In a couple of wierd and wild combats, in which every possible kind of base ball was interpolated, the de luxe Rourklets lambasted the wild Wolves from Wichita yesterday, 14 to 11 and

The Wolves certainly were wild yesterday. What happened to them in the first game made them wild and during the second contest a more preved assembly of athletes never was before beheld at Rourke park.

Jackson's men got away to a flying start in the first game and it looked like the Rourkes would be unable to head them. Due to Gaskell's wildness the Wolves put four runs over the rubber in the first inning. Then in the second inning they annexed six more tallies by hitting Harry Krause hard. As the Rourkes had put over only two runs in the first the score stood 10 to 2 in favor of Wichita.

This made it look pretty soft for the Kansans. Even the most rabid bug conceded them victory and an Omaha better couldn't have been found if ten to one was offered. head them. Due to Gaskell's wildness to one was offered.

But for some reason or other the Rourkes wanted to win that game, and win it they did, with the able as-sistance of the Wolves.

Forsythe Hits Homer.

In the home half of the second the Rourkes made six runs on two hits, one of the hits being a home run by Cyrus Forsythe with two men on the runway. This made it 10 to 8.

The Wolves made another tally in the third and then the Rourkes made:

two more in the fourth. Incidentally it might be mentioned the Rourkes made their ten runs in the first four innings on four hits, which is going some.

In the sixth our heroes brought home the game by nicking Bolivar Kaufman, who had taken up the hurling when Jackson chased Klein, Griffen and Koestner in the order named, for five hits, counting four runs.

O'Toole Hurls Well. O'Toole Hurls Well.

After the third inning Marty O'Toole took up the twirling for the Rourkes and pitched swell ball. He did not allow a run during the six innings he worked and only permitted three hits.

This first game was replete with all kinds of base ball. Hitting, errors, great fielding plays, smart base ball and bones were pulled by both sides.

and bones were pulled by both sides. Forsythe's home run and a double play engineered by Earl Smith were the leaders. After catching a fly Smith nipped Britton off first base by a perfect throw from deep field. Cy Forsythe also contributed a one-handed catch of Dolly Gray's line drive in this game.

drive in this game.

The second game was duck soup for the Rourkes. The Wolves were so sore at themselves they couldn't play ball, and Omaha walked home easily. Smith Bats Thousand.

Earl Smith was the Rourke star in Earl Smith was the Rourke star in this combat with four hits out of as many trips to the plate. Earl didn't have any chances in the field.

But Dolly Gray and Jimmy Jackson furnished the most entertainment for the fans. In the fifth inning with two down Ernie Krueger singled. He stole second. Gray made a beautiful heave into center field. Jackson leisurely fielded the ball and threw it to Britton. Jackson evidently forgot about Krueger, for Ernie raced all the way home from second. Then Cy Forsythe drew a walk and stole second. Gray made another of his center field heaves and Forsythe continued his way around the bases. This time Jackson mussed up the ball and Cy rambled clear home.

Peru. Neb., July 23.—(Special.)—
The Oklahoma Indians have just finished a series of ball games here in which they won one out of three. The first game with the Peru Normal resulted as follows: rambled clear home.

Jackson's grouch at himself reached such a high pitch he furned around and threw the ball directly at Coy in left field. Luckily for Coy, who wasn't paying any attention to the game, Jimmy's aim was bad. The ball missed Coy and rolled out of the park.

Fan Faints.

A fainting fan in the bleachers also loaned enchantmen to the second com-bat. The second game was called in hat. The second game was called in the seventh by mutual agreement. Today the Rourkes and Wolves lay off, having played the game scheduled for today as part of the double bill yesterday. After today the Rourkes leave for a long trip around the south-ern half of the loop.

Detroit, July 25.—Chicago defeated Detroit, 12 to 5, today in the wildest, wierdest game played here in a decade. Chicago made twenty hits and used five twifers. Ness was the star slugger with two singles, two doubles and atriple in six times at bat. The teams arriving from the east this afternoon, reached the bai park one hour late and then battled for two hours and forty-seven minutes under a broiling sun. Close docisions were numerous. Manager Jennings was put off the field for disputing a decision and at the close of the game Umpire Nailin narrowly escaped being mobbed. With two out in the ninth and two men on base, Bush sent up a high foul. Schalk crashed against the stand, caught the ball doubled up and then regained his footing. Umpire Nailin allowed the put out and thousands of fans swarmed on the diamond. Nailin was escorted to the club house by Detroit and Chicago players.

Cobb was not able to play his regular position. A torn finger, sustained in Boston, was responsible.

The White Sox scored their winning runs in the eighth inning on successive hit.

The fishing trip was most successful from a fisherman's standpoint and 517, or half a ton, of game fish were caught, including bass, pike, northern pike, pickerel, crappies, muskies and bluegills. The record on bass was made by Peters, while Burley made the pike record with three monsters in one day. The sunfish king was Dan Gaines.
